

WHY COMMUNITY POLICING IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN EVER

Did you see the video last winter that went viral of the Gainesville, FL Police Department's Officer White playing basketball with a group of neighborhood kids? He was responding to a complaint of noisy kids. Officer White keeps a basketball and a football in his trunk so that he can engage the kids on his patrol. Shaquille O'Neal saw the video, and surprised Officer White by showing up at the station to accompany him for a rematch.

Good news is good for us all to read and watch. Turns out there's lots of good news regarding Law Enforcement to be found on COPS Office: Success Stories. There's also good news about Community Policing from FirstNet's LE Advisor, Pete Dunbar. Check out Pete's Blog below about why community Policing is so important.

Making a Difference With Community Policing

Many in law enforcement have said that they have been doing community policing before it became popular. And, in all likelihood, they have been doing problem solving with the community to improve the quality of life in neighborhoods where they work. Call it beat health, problem oriented policing or community policing...
